

Ceiling lamp designed by by Palle Suenson, Denmark
1940

H: 28 cm / 11 1/16"
Dia: 51 cm / 20 1/8"

Metal shade, perforated brass, lacquered inside.Palle Suenson was one of the leading Danish architects of the twentieth century. His style balanced impressive scale and form, always elevated by scrupulous artistic attention to detail and materials.
Many of Denmark's renowned furniture designers, including Hans Wegner and Poul Kjaerholm worked under Palle Suenson during their early careers.

Provenance: Designed for restaurant Au Coq d'Or, Copenhagen.